

A tribute to the Aboriginal Cricket Team of 1868

Dear Teachers,

Let us introduce you and your class to the most exciting new educational kit to reach schools in a decade. The Johnny Mullagh Cricket Centre offers a specifically designed Educational program to assist students in various areas. This Educational Kit is based on a visit to the Johnny Mullagh Cricket Centre in Harrow, Victoria. The Centre celebrates the history of the 'First Eleven', the Aboriginal Cricket Team that toured England in 1868 and 1869.

The kit will help further students learning in the areas of:

- History
- Geography
- Economy & Society
- Health & Physical Education

Close too many other educational and fun filled attractions in Western Victoria, eg. Brambuk, Little Desert Lodge, The Naracoorte Caves.

The Centre offers a hands-on interactive learning experience for students of all ages .The program provides an holistic approach to learning including: cultural, historic, sporting, environmental and team building activities.

Easy Options!

Call our friendly staff Jenn or Sally on 03 5588 1387 to discuss your needs

1. Fax coupon below for an email copy of education kit (no charge)
2. Post for a paper copy of educational Kit. (A $6.00 postage and handling cost apply which will be reimbursed on confirmation and deposit of your booking to the Centre)

Option 1.

Fax to 03 55 88 1361

Jenn and Sally,

Name _____

School _____

Phone _____

Please email me a copy of the Educational kit now available to:

Option 2.

Send slip and cheque to: Johnny Mullagh Cricket Centre
Blair Street (PO Box 26)
HARROW Vic 3317

Jenn and Sally,

Please send me a copy of the educational kit for the Johnny Mullagh Cricket Centre. Enclosed is our $6.00 cheque, which will be reimbursed to me on confirmation and deposit of our booking to the Centre.

Name _____

School _____

Address _____

Phone _____

